Reports to a Section Head of GG's Services

In GG we seek to raise an exemplary next-generation and empower families. As a GG Champion, we are looking for someone who are themselves an exemplary young person with a heart for under-served children and families while making a difference in Malaysian communities.

what will a GG champion do?

Impact the communities that GG works with in a rotation among two or three of GG's Departments.

Experience what it is like to build relationships amongst teachers, government officials, corporate partners and volunteers. You will learn how to communicate effectively and conduct impact-measurement activities and report on the exciting stories you encounter.

Champion GG's causes through fundraising activities while learning about the exciting partners and their efforts to create better collaboration.

requirements:

- Minimum commitment of 12 months
- Fresh graduates or those with 1-2 years working experience
- Diploma or Degree holder in any field
- Strong communication skills, both written and spoken. Able to speak BM and Mandarin is an added advantage
- Able to confidently use Microsoft Office (Word, Excel, PowerPoint)
- Possess own transport and willing to travel as needed

You will take home:

Stories to tell of how YOU gave a 'hand-up' to children and families.

An insight into the social work industry; its joys and challenges.

Stepping stones to what your career path could look like.

Transferable skills many employers would want.
